Retail Store Stock Inventory Analytics

Problem Statement 1:

This problem statement covers a prolonging issue of too much inventory. Too much inventory means an increased working capital cost, operational cost and a complex operation.

QUESTION	DESCRIPTION
Who does the problem affect?	Retail Stock Owners and Investors
When does the issue occur?	When the products are more and demand is less.
Why is it important that we fix the problem?	We need to fix this problem in order to reduce capital cost,operational cost.

Problem Statement 2:

Too little inventory could lead to a shortage of supply and that way the demands of the customers are not met.

QUESTION	DESCRIPTION

Who does the problem affect?	Customers , capital investment,stock directory and loss of updates.
Why is it important that we fix the problem?	To meet the customer demands and to have customer satisfaction.